Delehanty is Now Leading, Pushing - Lajoie Back to Second Place.

Ed Delehanty has for the second time thi season displaced Napoleon Lajole as the leader of the American League batsmen. As both of them are now under the .400 mark, they have apparently been indulging in a falling contest, in which Napoleon fell the faster. Of players now actively engaged in the league campaign, Murphy ranks next to the two king pins, then Lave Cross and then Danny Green.

Thirty-one men are batting .300 or better. Of this batch, Washington has five, Cleveland eight, the Athletics seven, Chicago one, Boston three, Detroit one, Baltimore five and St. Louis one. Delehanty leads in hits made, Fultz in runs scored and Mertes in stolen bases.

Washington leads in team batting, Cleve-Washington leads in team batting, Cleve-land, the Athletics, Baitimore, Boston and St. Louis following in order. The Senaters also lead in long-distance hitting. Freeman and Delehanty are now even up for the place of chief individual slugger, and Davy Jones, who jumped the National League, continues to lead the base runners, on a percentage basis. Cy Young has things much his own way as the season's star pitcher, Rube Waddell close behind. The figures:

BRIGHTWOOD RACES.

Track Was Fast, but Events Were One-Sided

There was quite a large crowd of followers of harness races at the Brightwood track yesterday afternoon, and the sport was such as to send everybody home in a pleasant frame of mind. The track was in splendid condition, and the events were pulled off in good time.

In the 2.35 trot and pace Robin Hood outclassed his field, although far from his best form. Tom B. raised the expectations of his friends in the first half of the third heat, but his effort pumped him out and he was never afterward dangerous, while Miss Morlie was the brown gelding's chief contender in the two first heats. The much-discussed match race between E. J. Edelin's J. M. B. and James Talty's Nellie T., for $300 a side, did not material ie on account of an ailing leg on the part of the bay gelding. Mr. Edelin paid forfeit.

The match race between E. H. Javin's Mme. Nordica Branch and Timothy Shugrue's Harry C. proved to be an easy thing for the mare. The gray stallion was far from being at his best and seemed tied up.

Francesco Won the Feature Event of the Opening Day.

Charles F. Dwyer's three-year-old Francesco won the $10,000 Saratoga handicap, the feature race of the Saratoga association's opening day's sport yesterday afternoon; Herbert was second and Articulate third. The time for the mile and threesixteenths, 1.50, was very fast, considering that the track, although dried out considerably, was inclined to be cuppy. Blues was the favorite, with the Dwyer pair, Ethics and Francesco, coupled in the betting, strong second choices. The field numbered closing on Blues after the stretch was reached, and drawing away, won handily by four lengths, Herbert second, five lengths before Articulate. Advance Guard was fourth and Carbuncle fifth, close up. The Bailston cup steeplechase resulted in a victory for Borquehalwho, solely through the superior jockeyship of Barry, beat out Self Protection, ridden by his owner, Harry S. Page, a head.

Articulate was first away from the post,

Napier disposed of Popiel, Marshall had gone down before Wolf, and Atkins and Mieses had drawn their game; Mason created a sensation by beating the leader, Janowski, who thus lost his first game, while Mason se-cured his first win. Gunsberg upset the ealculations of Olland, Gottschall made short work of Suechting, and Tschigorin defeated Cohn. The game between Barde-leben and Swiderski was adjourned a sec-ond time, again in an even position. The Philadelphia Team Overwhelms Halifax in First Inning.

The Philadelphia cricketers arrived at Halifax, N. S., on Sunday evening from Boston, and as two or three of them were still a little out of sorts as a result of the voyage, they at once repaired to the Queen Hotel, and, although the army and navy officers had planned a short excursion for their entertainment, the majority of the tourists turned in early and were not seen again until yesterday morning, when the whole party turned out early and in good spirits for the first match of the series, a spirits for the first match of the series, a two days' affair with the garrison. The wicket prepared for the occasion turned out bumpy and rather treacherous, however, and the United Service team were unable to make much headway against the well-directed attack of King and Clark, and although Captain Taylor played in dashing style for 20 and one or two of the others reached doubles, they were all disposed of before getting thoroughly set, and to the great disappointment of the large crowd in attendance the entire side was out before luncheon for the small total of 86.

King was finally disposed of for an excel-lent 55, but later in the innings Clark hit out freely for 39 and Evans played care-fully and well for 68, not out, the total being carried to 227 before the last wicket fell. During the afternoon tea was served on the grounds by the ladies, and in the on the grounds by the ladies, and in the evening the visitors were dined at the Hall-fax Club. Princeton Athletes Near Danger Line. The announcement that Ralph T. Davis, captain, and John R. DeWitt, tackle on the Princeton foot ball team, had falled in their June examinations has aroused much interest and has brought forth no little comment. The fact that the names of the students who came within the limits of the rule which places a student on the dropped list were withheld when the reports were published last Monday caused many Princeton adherents a feeling of grave apprehension lest a number of the star athletes were among the unfortunates. It is known that several prominent athletes did fail in the examinations, and that some of them have been dropped to lower classes, although practically all of them will be afforded an opportunity to show cause for being caught in the meshes of the committee's net. Some of them will be reinstated, but most of them will doubtless be enrolled with the next lower class.

The case of Captain Davis, and also that of DeWitt, is not so serious. According to a statement by the chairman of the under-graduate athletic committee, neither of these men will be dropped. When seen he said that Davis did not have any back conditions before the June examinations, and if he had he would not have been permitted to play on the base ball team last spring. As for DeWitt, he was also clear of conditions, and consequently was eligible to keep his position on the track team. It was further officially stated that Davis had not failed in more than one subject in the final examinations held last June, which at most could not exceed four hours, and he would therefore not be dropped, as it requires a failure in eight hours to place a student in Major Taylor May Betire.

Major Taylor, the colored whirlwind, who claims that his two defeats by Champion Frank Kraemer Were due to his being interfered with, threatens to retire from the cycle path, owing to the prejudice shown by discriminating hotel keepers in the na-tional championship, but he wants to prove that he is Kramer's master on the silent steed before he quits.

On Saturday at Manhattan Beach Taylor and Kramer, with Bald, "Plugger Bill" Martin, George Collett, Iver Lawson, Orlando Stevens and au dozen other speedy riders, will meet in the one-third mile circuit championship, and the dusky rider says he will prove in this race that he is king at the sprints.

Grand Circuit Trots.

The fourth week of the grand circuit opened at the Fort Erie track near Buffalo, yesterday, with clear skies and a fast track. Three races were decided, each in straight heats.

In the 230 trot Rythmic, the blind trotter, was favorite, $50 to $20 against the field, and when it came to racing, it was all Rythmic. Both Directum Spier and Johnny tried to beat the favorite, but did not have the speed. In winning Rythmic reduced his record from 2.114-to 2.084.

Dan R. won the 2.08 pace just as cleverly. There was nothing in the race that could give the sorrel pacer a race. Dan R. sold at $50 to $40 against the field, and was always in front Geers could not do much ways in front. Geers could not do much with Fred S. Coach Dempsey Retained.

Friends of the Georgetown rowing crew were given a good piece of news yesterday, when announcement was made that Coach P. A. Dempsey had been re-engaged by the university officials and would remain at the institution throughout the scholastic season to train the 'varsity scullers. Mr. Dempsey has made many friends while with Georgetown, and the chances are that with more time he will yet turn out a winner for the blue and gray.

It is said the Phillies have their eyes on two other members of the Penn Park club.

Sam Leever, the Pittsburg pitcher, makes some interesting observations about pitch-ing. He says: "Most spectators at a base ball game have an exaggerated idea of the curve ball in pitching. They think the man in the box can send in all kinds of twisters and thus fool the opposing batsman. Of course, mastery of the curve ball is part of the pitcher's stock in trade but controlbatsmen's weakness are much more im-

Hickman's batting is one of the greatest sensations of the year. While always a good batsman, it remained for the year of 1902 to show Hickman at his best in this respect. This is something to be wondered at, as he is now facing the best twirlers he has been up against since he has been play-ing base ball. Nevertheless, he is lining them out as he never did before, nearly half of his hits being for more than a single base. Elmer Flick is also regaining his batting eye with a vengeance, and is more than making up for lost time, and those who, a few weeks ago, predicted that he would be inside the .300 class before the season ended will have an excellent chance of cashing in.

Mrs. Mollie S. Dement, sixteen years of age, was the complainant in the Police Court this morning against her husband, Frank L. Dement, a bricklayer, who resides at 1412 12th street northeast. There were two charges against Dement-assault and threats-and he forfelted $10 on the former charge because he falled to answer to his name when the collateral list was called. Judge Mills, after hearing the evidence in the threats case, dismissed the charge, he holding that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant a conviction.

have a slightly better game against Suechting. These three games, with the other two, adjourned contests, will be resumed
this afternoon.
